A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events, outbreaks of disease or pandemics (such as COVID-19), and the ability of manager to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

INTERIM MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE | For the Period Ended September 30, 2023

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 13, 2023

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook in the six-month period ended September 30, 2023 (the "period"). If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period since inception.

In this report, "IGIM" and "the Manager" refer to I.G. Investment Management, Ltd., the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Please read A Note on Forward-Looking Statements on the first page of this document.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

In accordance with National Instrument 81-106, the following comparison to one or more market indices has been included to help you understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of the markets. However, the portfolio management team cautions that the Fund's mandate may be different from the index or indices shown. Also, it is important to note that investors cannot invest in an index. Indirect investments in an index are available; however, there are fees and transaction costs and other variables that will impact returns when investing in these products. Index returns included in the comparison below do not reflect these costs and variables. In addition, unlike the index, this Fund may be subject to valuation adjustments as outlined in the Fund's valuation policies as it relates to non-North American equities held either directly or indirectly by the Fund. A fair value adjustment can either positively or negatively impact the Fund's rate of return.

For longer-term performance of the Fund, see the Past Performance section of this report.

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2023, the Series P securities returned 2.6% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the Fund). In comparison, the Fund's broad-based index, the MSCI World (Net) Index, returned 3.5% and the Fund's blended index returned 3.9%. The blended index is composed of a 40% weighting in the Russell 3000 Index (returned 5.2%) and a 60% weighting in the ICE BofA Three-Month U.S. Treasury Bill Index (returned 2.9%). Given the Fund's mandate, the blended index has been included as a more meaningful comparison.

U.S. equities rose over the period as the pace of interest rate increases eased. U.S. consumer spending remained relatively strong despite tight financial conditions. The U.S. labour market was strong and inflation remained elevated. In response, the U.S. Federal Reserve continued to raise its federal funds rate, albeit at a slower pace. Large-capitalization growth stocks outperformed value stocks as interest rate increases were expected to slow.

The Federal Reserve increased the federal funds rate by 50 basis points over the period to a target range of 5.25%–5.50%. U.S. corporate bond prices declined, but outperformed government bonds as credit spreads (the difference in yield between corporate and government bonds) narrowed. High-yield bond prices rose and yields moved lower in response to expectations the U.S. economy might avoid a significant recession.

Within the Russell 3000 Index, communication services, energy and information technology were the strongest sectors in Canadian dollar terms, while utilities, real estate and consumer staples were the weakest.

The Fund combines long-only equity strategies with hedging strategies that are designed to manage the overall market exposure while helping mitigate risk. The Fund contains regional components that include long-only equities. It currently consists of U.S. large-capitalization, U.S. small-capitalization, Europe and Japan components.

The Fund underperformed both the broad-based index and the blended index. The Fund's exposure to U.S. small-cap stocks detracted from performance, while exposure to Europe, Japan and U.S. large-cap equities contributed to performance. The Fund's hedging strategies, which are designed to reduce the Fund's overall market exposure, contributed to performance, although the impact varied by region. The Japan hedging strategy detracted from performance, while the Europe, U.S. small-cap and U.S. large-cap hedging strategies contributed to performance. The Fund's risk mitigation strategy, which involves writing and buying S&P 500 put options, detracted from performance.

Over the period, neither portfolio activity nor market developments significantly changed the positioning of the Fund.

Leverage

Leverage occurs when the Fund borrows money or securities, or uses derivatives, to generate investment exposure that would otherwise not be possible. The Fund's aggregate exposure to its sources of leverage is calculated as the sum of the following: (i) the market value of short holdings; (ii) the amount of cash borrowed for investment purposes; and (iii) the notional value of the Fund's derivatives positions, excluding any derivatives used for hedging purposes.

The Fund uses derivatives in the form of equity index futures, foreign exchange forwards and/or options to hedge the portfolio's market exposure and mitigate downside risk. The source of leverage was derivatives positions in equity index options and currency forward contracts, which are used to reduce market exposure.

Over the period, the Fund's aggregate exposure to sources of leverage ranged from 20.8% to 31.1% of the Fund's net asset value. The fluctuation comes from the portfolio's options positioning (specifically short put options) as the market moves toward or away from the strike price of the options and as the currency forward contracts expire and new positions are added. Including the notional value of derivatives used for hedging, the low and high amounts of gross notional value of the Fund ranged from 108.5% to 146.8%.

Net Assets

The Fund's net assets increased by 7.8% during the period to $320.1 million. This change was composed primarily of $8.2 million in net income (including any interest and/or dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, and an increase of $14.9 million due to net securityholder activity (including sales, redemptions and cash distributions).

Fees and Expenses

The annualized management expense ratio ("MER") for each series during the period ended September 30, 2023, was generally similar to the MER for the year ended March 31, 2023. Total expenses paid vary from period to period mainly as a result of changes in average assets in each series. No management fee or administration fee, other than certain specific fund costs, is charged to the Fund. The MERs for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

Despite a strong start to 2023, equity markets remained volatile during the period as investors focused on economic developments and the risks they posed. The portfolio management team expects continued market volatility as investors react to the potential for elevated interest rates to last longer than originally expected, persistent inflation, a slowdown in China's economy and the outsized impact of a select few stocks on equity market index returns.

Related Party Transactions

I.G. Investment Management, Ltd. is the Manager, Trustee and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund. The Fund is only available for purchase by other IG Wealth Management Funds and is not available for purchase by retail investors. The Manager, Portfolio Advisor and Trustee are, indirectly, wholly owned subsidiaries of IGM Financial Inc.

Certain other investment funds, distributed by IG Wealth Management, and other qualified investors may invest in Series P of this Fund. As at September 30, 2023, this series comprised 100.0% of the Fund's net assets. The Manager relied on standing instructions approved by the IG Wealth Management Funds Independent Review Committee for the execution of all such transactions, which are based on the net asset value per security determined in accordance with the stated policies of the Fund on each transaction day. Investments by other investment funds in the Fund increase the risk of large redemption or purchase orders, which could result in larger than normal cash positions in the Fund for short periods of time. This could have an impact on the Fund's operations. However, the Manager uses various strategies to minimize the potential dilutive impact associated with large cash positions. These strategies may include transferring securities in-kind where possible, utilizing ETFs to maintain market exposure in lieu of cash and spreading transactions in smaller increments over a period of time.

Past Performance

The Fund's performance information assumes all distributions made by the Fund in the periods presented are reinvested in additional securities of the relevant series of the Fund. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns or performance. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar chart presents the performance of Series P of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Series Information.

The following bar chart presents the performance of the Fund's long and short portfolio positions for the period ended September 30, 2023, before deducting fees and expenses and before the effect of other assets (liabilities).

(1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's unaudited interim financial statements and audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences, if any, can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

(1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.

(2) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, income taxes and withholding taxes, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, except as noted. In the period a series is established, the MER is annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. Where the Fund directly invests in securities of another fund (including exchange-traded funds or "ETFs"), the MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment. Any income distributions received from ETFs managed by affiliates of the Manager, with the intention of offsetting fees paid within those ETFs but which are not considered to be duplicative fees under regulatory requirements, are treated as waived expenses for MER purposes. The Manager may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.

(3) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of another fund (including ETFs), the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The Fund is only available for purchase by other IG Wealth Management Funds and is not available for purchase by retail investors. In order to avoid duplication of fees in the other IG Wealth Management Funds, the Fund does not pay a management fee.
